Tamir Packin is an experienced trial lawyer who focuses on complex patent cases. He has managed trial teams and has participated in all aspects of trial, including conducting direct and cross-examinations of important fact and expert witnesses. Mr. Packin has participated in all phases of litigation and he approaches every task with an eye towards reaching a favorable verdict (or favorable pre-verdict judgment), and securing it during post-trial proceedings and on appeal. Mr. Packin also has assisted clients in negotiating settlement and license agreements, and has represented and counseled clients on strategic patent licensing and antitrust claims.

Mr. Packin's trial and litigation experience spans a wide range of industries and technologies, including personal computers, mobile handset technologies, computer security and software, networking equipment, voice-over-IP, cable modems, semiconductor processing, flash memory, pharmaceuticals, medical devices and ceramics.

In 2015 and 2016, Mr. Packin was named a "Rising Star" in Intellectual Property Litigation by New York Super Lawyers.

Mr. Packin has been with Desmarais LLP since the firm's inception. Before joining the firm, Mr. Packin was an associate in the Intellectual Property group of Kirkland & Ellis LLP.
