Bindu Donovan of Desmarais named to Benchmark Top 250 Women in Litigation.

Benchmark Litigation has recognized Bindu Donovan as one of the Top 250 Women in Litigation in its annual publication. Donovan is a New York-based litigator with Desmarais.

The Top 250 Women in Litigation publication's extensive research process, which encompasses six months of investigation into the individual litigators' professional activities as well as client feedback surveys and individual interviews, has culminated in the selection of the most distinguished women in the world of litigation. These women have earned their place amongst the leading female litigators by participating in some of the most impactful litigation matters in recent history as well as by earning the hard-won respect of their peers and clients. Though they hail from widely different practice areas, they all share the distinction of being recognized as top players in their respective fields.

Listed within the Northeast section of the Top 250 Women in Litigation publication, Benchmark Litigation had this to say about Donovan:

Desmarais' newly-acquired patent litigator Bindu Donovan is a member of the firm's life sciences practice after decamping from Sidley Austin in the fall of 2018. With more than two decades of expertise under her belt, Donovan has developed into a trusted authority on high-stakes patent disputes, most notably on cases filed under the Hatch-Waxman Act on behalf of innovator drug companies. She begins her time at the firm representing brand-name pharmaceutical companies against generic competitors and other contentious patent infringement matters.

Attorneys named to the 2019 publication were chosen through several phases of research: namely, the review of their recent case work, peer review in which we consider how attorneys at peer legal institutions might rank them, and a consideration of client feedback on their performances.

In addition to this honor, Desmarais also enjoys a number of firm-wide rankings and further individual attorney recognition by Benchmark Litigation. For more information please see here:
